News Release

Jim McDonnell, Sheriff

On March 26, 2016, at 2300 Hours, a shooting occurred at a party in the 43600 Block of Emile Zola Avenue, in the City of Lancaster. Lancaster Station Deputies and Operation Safe Streets both responded to the scene where the two victims had been shot numerous times as they were leaving. A suspect, Ruben "Risky" Lemos and a male juvenile hispanic were identified as two of the participants of the crime. The 15 year old male juvenile was identified as the shooter. On June 1st 2016, Operation Safe Streets detectives, Lancaster Station Deputies and Los Angeles County Sheriff Department's Special Enforcement Bureau, carried out search warrants related to the crime. The suspect and male juvenile were arrested and will be arraigned in Superior Court on June 3rd. Both victims of the shooting were transported to Antelope Valley Hospital where they were treated for numerous gunshot wounds from the incident. Anyone with additional information regarding the shooting is asked to please contact OSS Detective Welle at 661-948-8466.
